Ladies Night Out - Night was very organized, donations and sponsorships came in within a timely manner, set up went well, Merion was once again a pleasure to work with, successful evening and ran smooth, positive feedback, opening 2nd bar in ballroom during cocktail hour helped with lines at bar, ticket lines were long between 6-7 pm but well controlled and no complaints, thank you to all volunteers for helping to make it fun and successful. Total profit was $28,053.29

Buy a Brick - January 6-27th, 19 bricks ordered, install will occur late spring, Total profit was $257.50

SmashBurger- occurred on February 22nd, Total profit was $150.00

School Kits - Karen Ceniccola and Lisa Gigliotti are co-chairs, can order between March 9-23rd. No late orders will be accepted.

Jersey Mikes - will be on April 13th all day, make a $2.00 donation to SPRV and receive a free hoagie. Cards will go home to oldest child on April 11th.

Book Fair - Lisa Gigliotti is chair, Kim Yost is chairing “All For Books” which starts April 14th. Set-up will be on Friday, April 22nd at 9AM. Sandra Freedman will decorate - this year’s theme is Feelin Groovy, using empty 1st grade classroom. Mrs. Trace doesn’t have to relocate, teachers aren’t inconvenienced during prep with library in classrooms and it will keep the traffic downstairs rather than near 3rd and 4th grade hallways since they will be doing PARCC testing during that week. All for Books incentives will be enjoyed the following week due to PARCC

VP Events/Programming – Christine Wetzel, Nikki Montana

Magic Night - using new company this year, magician Chad Juros, to be held on Friday, April 8th from 6:30-7:30PM. Cyndi Reiley chair. Popcorn and drinks will be served. Form went home with kid’s folders week of March 14th.

Staff Luncheon - May 3rd, set-up will occur afternoon May 2nd. May cater hot portion this year, as there is money in the budget for this.

Summer Bash - First committee meeting held to discuss options/ideas. Summer Bash is being held Friday, June 17th, from 5:30-8:30PM. More details to follow after next committee meeting.
